Experimental studies on the accumulation of polonium-210 by marine phytoplankton

Our paper, which appeared in Vol. 48, p. 1193–1201, contained substantive typographic errors. In the right column of p. 1194, line 10 should read “. . . from 100 to 500 μg C L−1” and the 6th line from the bottom should read “. . . (1, 5, and 10 nmol L−1) . . . ”
